SUPPLEMENTARY SHEET

the architect and applicant believed had the support of Officers. Support for the proposed development shifted after a very intensive campaign by local amenity groups. English heritage also changed their position from supporting the application to raising an objection.

Whilst we acknowledge the high level of interest in this application, both for and against, it would appear that the application was refused for emotive reasons rather than being based on sound policy grounds. We therefore respectfully request an Inspector, who is a qualified architect, as it is considered that the architectural merits of the appeal scheme will be given a fair hearing through this procedure.
