

This architectural floor plan shows a building with a complex, irregular footprint. A prominent red line runs vertically through the center of the plan, indicating the location of a section cut. The building is divided into several rooms, including a large central hall, a staircase, and various smaller spaces. The plan also shows the building's relationship to its surroundings, including a large tree on the left and a smaller tree on the right. The red line is labeled with 'B' at both ends, indicating the section cut line.
