View as Existing

- 6.87 Beyond the listed Victorian Roundhouse on the right, this view is dominated by modern buildings on either side in the foreground, with a fragmented streetscape of Victorian terraces seen on the left beyond. Chalk Farm Road runs gently downhill and curves to the right, so that buildings on the left of the road come into view.
- 6.88 The right hand side of the road lies in the Regents Canal CA.
- 6.89 The view is not of any particular townscape quality. It is of minor to moderate sensitivity to change.

View as Proposed

- 6.90 The upper parts of Building C2 are seen on the skyline at the end of the street but are not prominent from here, and their apparent height is no greater than the prevailing streetscape.
- 6.91 This is a minor change to the view, of minor significance. The effect is long-term and neutral.
