

Document 4

Photos of cracks on walls. Have not commissioned report as am hoping the drain damage and light issues for our neighbour at 145 are sufficient justification. However, two structural engineers have said they believe the proximity of the trees is a contributing factor so will commission report if it is felt to be the crucial deciding factor.

Example of movement in main property building

