

Design and Access.

The objective is to replace the existing conservatory with a simplified structure that will not distract from the original listed parts.

Thus a largely transparent wall to the garden and a roof as seamless as possible.

The roof wants to express the slate/lead original roof colour in a contemporary way.

The wall is largely glass. The dimensions are contemporary but we admire the original fine glazing bar details and aluminium allows us to keep framing light.