Details of the pre-application advice received:

regarding the following proposed alterations to the restaurant (A3 use class) at the above address.
Painting or tiling the front fascia sign
Frosting at low level on the windows
Replace glass with Georgian wired glass
I can confirm that painting or tiling the shop and changing the glass will require planning permission.
Frosting of glass may not require consent but we are unable to confirm this unless we can assess the extent of frosting and whether this will alter the material appearance of the shop front.
Nelson Design:
From this application we decided not to go with tiling or frosted glass as it was unlikely to be accepted.
