

Two louvres and one fire escape door

Louvre sample

DESIGN STATEMENT

Works proposed at Eastman Dental Hospital to the rear of the complex the loading bay, which was a later addition to the hospital known as the Levy Wing East and West, this formerly was part of the Royal Free Hospital acquired by EDH in the late 19th Century. Our project is based in the basement and we are proposing to install two louvres and a louvered door to the elevation

