

No.18 front elevation	No.13 front elevation	Typical front dormer	No.21 - 22 front elevation
-----------------------------	-----------------------------	----------------------------	-------------------------------

Photos of the immediate context and existing streetscape of Belsize Park and its surrounding area in which it can be seen that many of the front and side roof elevations have been adapted over the years and now feature either a dormer and/or the insertion of a number of rooflights to facilitate the expansion of the loft as habitable space.
