Dear Councillor Fulbrook

Town and Country Planning Acts 1990 (as amended)
25-27 Farringdon Road, London, EC1M 3HA
Planning Reference Number: 2009/3368/P

Further to the email response from my colleague Charles Thuaire (sent 07/01/2010 based on your email of the same day) regarding 25-27 Farringdon Road (2009/3368/P), I write regarding your email dated 15/12/2009 to my colleagues Stuart Minty and Frances Wheat. I trust that the response from Charles clarifies matters regarding the consultation carried out as part of this application.

With regard to public safety measures, please refer to Charles' email concerning the additional information received about the customer entrance points to the building. In addition, please refer to paragraphs 6.13 and 6.15 of the Officer Report Charles attached to his email of 07/01/2010 with reference to the consideration of public safety matters. In short it is considered that the Council have sufficiently considered matters relating to public safety and have recommended a series of conditions in order to maintain public safety and the amenity of nearby occupiers.

In respect of waste disposal and delivery matters, please see paragraphs 6.23-6.25 of the Officer Report for more details. More specifically, please note that recommended condition 7 seeks more details regarding waste storage and disposal. This would be required to be satisfied prior to the use commencing at the site should planning permission be granted. Again, such measures are considered suitable and sufficient for the nature of the proposed change of use.

I hope that this information is of assistance to you. Should you have any further questions or queries prior to the application being scheduled to be considered at Development Control Committee on 14th January, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Jonathan Markwell
Planning Officer (East Area Team)
