

Access Statement:

The existing access to the garden from the public footpath is unaltered by the proposal. The addition of railings will give protection against falling from height to the upper tier of the garden (currently no protection other than a dwarf wall) and therefore make this area accessible.