

Site Specific Risk Assessments

Site Specific Risk Assessment

The following criteria have been applied in assessing the specific risks posed by this particular project. This measures are applied in addition to the risk controls above in the relevant risk assessments.

HIGH RISK = Fatality, major injury or illness causing long term

MEDIUM RISK = Injury or illness causing short term disability

LOW RISK = Other injury or illness

	Risk Level	Additional Control Measure Required	Risk Level after controls applied
--	---------------	--	--------------------------------------

High

No

High

Control Measure

Emergency Procedures Relevant to Site

Emergency Procedure

On hearing the fire alarm, you should alert others and go to assembly point

The assembly point in case of fire is the main gate

The first aid kit is located in contractors vans

The first aiders are Robert Hemming

The method of raising the alarm is to alert the site foreman

The nearest final exit to the work is located to the scaffold access point

The nearest hospital is located at St Mary's Hospital, Paddington, W2