Dear Sir,

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT, 1947

Permission for Development.

The Council, in pursuance of its powers under the above mentioned Act and the Town and Country Planning General Development Order, 1950, hereby permits the development referred to in the undermentioned Schedule in accordance with the plans submitted.

The permission is given subject also to due compliance with any local Acts, regulations, building by-laws and general statutory provisions in force in the area and nothing herein shall be regarded as dispensing with such compliance or be deemed to be a consent by the Council thereunder.

Your particular attention is drawn to the provisions of the London Building Acts, 1930-39 and the by-laws in force thereunder which must be complied with to the satisfaction of the District Surveyor.

I would also remind you that the Council's permission does not modify or affect any personal or restrictive covenants applying to the land or the rights of any person entitled to the benefits thereof.

SCHEDULE

Date of application. 19th May, 1955

Plans submitted No. 3671

Development: The sub-division of the ground floor flat at No. 22, Redington Road, Hampstead, into two self-contained flats.

I have to inform you that the condition of the Council's consent dated 10th October, 1946, in respect of the approved means of escape in case of fire should be maintained.
