PART II

NOTES ON PART II

If you are the owner or tenant of all the land to which the application relates and have signed the certificate on Part I of the form, this does NOT apply.

Town and Country Planning Acts, 1962 to 1968

- If you are NOT the freeholder or tenant of all the land to which the application relates you should take one of the following three courses:
 - If you know the names and addresses of all the owners of the land to which the application relates, you should give them notice in the form shown in Notice No. 1 below and complete certificate B overleaf.
 - If you know the names and addresses of some of the owners of the land to which the application relates, but not all of them, you should give notice in the form shown in Notice No. 1 below to those whose names and addresses you know, and also give notice of the application in a local newspaper, in the form shown in Notice No. 2 below. The newspaper notice should be published not earlier than twenty days before the date of the application. You should then complete certificate C overleaf.
 - If you do not know the names and addresses of any of the owners of the land to which the application relates, you should give notice of the application in a local newspaper, in the form shown in Notice No. 2 below. This notice should be published not earlier than twenty days before the date of the application. You should then complete certificate D overleaf.
- If the application does not relate to land any part of which is an agricultural holding, paragraph 2B overleaf may be ignored. Should this not be so, notice has to be given to the tenant(s) of the holding(s) on the form shown in Notice No. 1 below and paragraph 2B should be completed and 2A deleted.
- Any person who knowingly or recklessly issues a certificate which contains any statement which is false or misleading in a material particular is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding £100.
- "Owner" means the estate owner in respect of the fee simple, or a person entitled to a tenancy for a term of years certain, of which not less than ten years remain unexpired.
