Statement of Applicant's Rights Arising from the Refusal of Planning Permission

- (1) If the Applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development, he may appeal to the Minister of Housing and Local Government, in accordance with section 23 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1962, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Minister of Housing and Local Government, Whitehall, London, S.W.1). The Minister has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Minister is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act 1965 and section 23 of the Industrial Development Act, 1966).
- (2) If permission to develop land is refused, whether by the local planning authority or by the Minister of Housing and Local Government, and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state, he may serve on the Common Council, or on the Council of the county borough, London borough or county district in which the land is situated, as the case may be, a purchase notice requiring that council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VIII of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1962 (as amended by the Town and Country Planning Act, 1968).
- (3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused by the Minister on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in section 123 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1962.

Additional Reasons for Refusal

3. No provision is made for the parking of members' cars with the resulting interference with the free flow of traffic in adjoining streets by parked cars.

Informatives:

In view of the above decision, the use of these rooms for Club purposes should cause forthwith.
