Dear Sir(s),

Town and Country Planning Acts 1962 to 1968
London Government Act 1963

REFUSAL OF PERMISSION TO DEVELOP

The Council, in pursuance of its powers under the above-mentioned Acts and Orders made hereunder, hereby refuses to permit the development referred to in the undermentioned Schedule as shown on the plans submitted.

Your attention is drawn to the Statement of Applicant's Rights set out overleaf.

SCHEDULE

Date of application: 14th July, 1970.

Plans submitted: Reg. No. 9298

Your No.

Development:

Change of use of Camden Studios, 13 Delancy Street and 84 Albert Street, N.W.1. from studio/factory to Auction Rooms.

Reasons for refusal

1. The proposal does not comply with the provisions of the Initial Development Plan which reserve the area for primarily residential purposes.
2. The proposal is likely to have an adverse effect upon the amenities of occupiers of adjoining residential accommodation by reason of increased activity and traffic congestion more particularly on and around sale days.

Yours faithfully,

Planning Officer
(Duly authorised by the Council to sign this document)

All correspondence to be addressed to the Planning Officer.

Statement of Applicant's Rights Arising from the Refusal of Planning Permission

- (1) If the Applicant is aggrieved by the decision of the local planning authority to refuse permission for the proposed development, he may appeal to the Minister of Housing and Local Government, in accordance with section 23 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1962, within six months of receipt of this notice. (Appeals must be made on a form which is obtainable from the Minister of Housing and Local Government, Whitehall, London, S.W.1). The Minister has power to allow a longer period for the giving of a notice of appeal but he will not normally be prepared to exercise this power unless there are special circumstances which excuse the delay in giving notice of appeal. The Minister is not required to entertain an appeal if it appears to him that permission for the proposed development could not have been granted by the local planning authority, having regard to the statutory requirements, to the provisions of the development order, and to any directions given under the order. (The statutory requirements include section 6 of the Control of Office and Industrial Development Act 1965 and section 23 of the Industrial Development Act, 1966).
- (2) If permission to develop land is refused, whether by the local planning authority or by the Minister of Housing and Local Government, and the owner of the land claims that the land has become incapable of reasonably beneficial use in its existing state, he may serve on the Common Council, or on the Council of the county borough, London borough or county district in which the land is situated, as the case may be, a purchase notice requiring that council to purchase his interest in the land in accordance with the provisions of Part VIII of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1962 (as amended by the Town and Country Planning Act, 1968).
- (3) In certain circumstances, a claim may be made against the local planning authority for compensation, where permission is refused by the Minister on appeal or on a reference of the application to him. The circumstances in which such compensation is payable are set out in section 123 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1962.
