Gentlemen,

18 JUN 1948

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS, 1932 to 1944

I am directed to inform you that the Council, in pursuance of its powers under the Town and Country Planning (General Interim Development) Order, 1946, hereby permits the development referred to in the undermentioned schedule subject to the conditions set out therein and in accordance with the plans submitted.

The permission is given subject also to due compliance with any local Acts, regulations, building by-laws and general statutory provisions in force in the area and nothing herein shall be regarded as dispensing with such compliance or be deemed to be a consent by the Council thereunder.

I would also remind you that the Council's permission does not modify or affect any personal or restrictive covenants applying to the land or the rights of any person entitled to the benefit thereof.

SCHEDULE

Date of application - 5th April, 1948.

Plans submitted No. 247 (Applicants' Nos. 24/Pa/1 to 29/Pa/1 inclusive).

Development and conditions of consent - The execution of alterations and erection of a new addition at Vane House, Rosslyn Hill, Hampstead, including the incorporation of such premises with 65, Rosslyn Hill adjoining, as shown on the plans submitted in accordance with the Council's approval to the use of Vane House as an extension to the Royal Soldiers Daughters' Home at 65, Rosslyn Hill, intimated by letter dated 28th May, 1946, to Mrs. Rosina Sangston, subject to:-

(1) the work being completed within two years from the first day of June, 1948, failing which this consent shall become null and void;

(2) the residential appearance of the premises being maintained and the windows kept curtained;

(3) the tank room structure on the roof being kept as low as possible and treated inconspicuously; and

(4) the previous conditions of consent being otherwise complied with.

Your attention is invited to the provisions of the London Building Acts, 1930-39, and the by-laws in force thereunder, which should be complied with to the satisfaction of the District Surveyor.

I have to inform you that this decision is without prejudice to the rights of owners of adjoining premises.
