Dear Sirs,

Town and Country Planning Act, 1962.
London Government Act, 1963.
20, Bedford Square, W.C.1.

Further to your application (dated the 27th July, 1967) for planning permission to use the rear basement of the above premises for office and storage purposes, I would inform you that no planning permission is required, in view of the fact that the Caretaker's accommodation is ancillary to the office use.

In view of the Building Preservation Order covering these premises, under Section 30 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1962, I am referring your application to the Architect to the Greater London Council. That Council will be responsible for granting permission under that particular Section of the Act and you will be hearing from them in due course.

Yours faithfully,

Planning Officer.
