61 - 63 ROCHESTER PLACE

This architectural elevation drawing shows a building facade with the following features:

- Left Section: A three-story structure. The top floor has a long horizontal window. The middle floor has four square windows. The ground floor has four large windows, each divided into a grid of smaller panes.
- Central Section: A two-story structure. The top floor has a large square window, a smaller square window, and a horizontal window. The ground floor features a large door with vertical slats, a smaller door, and a window. Labels include "Sign", "Alarm", "Plinth", and "Vent".
- Right Section: A single-story structure with a large horizontal window and a smaller square window. Labels include "Sign", "Light", "Vent", and "Plinth".
- Far Right Section: A single-story structure with a large horizontal window and a smaller square window. Labels include "Sign", "Light", "Vent", and "Plinth".
- Dimensions: Various numerical values are placed along the facade, likely indicating heights or widths in feet. These include 35.23, 33.89, 35.56, 32.31, 31.87, 29.56, 29.37, and 31.87.
- Other Details: The drawing includes labels for "Air bricks", "Sign", "Light", "Vent", and "Plinth". There are also small symbols for "Alarm" and "Vent".
