

consent to be reported to appropriate authorities if it should not.
The contractor is to provide full and complete details of all work to be done in this drawing for the architect to approve prior to commencing construction.
This drawing is to be used in conjunction with all the relevant conditions and / or special drawings or documents and any discrepancies or variations are to be notified to the architect before the start of work commences.

replace velux rooflight
with conservation style

RECEIVED
- 2 FEB 2007

2186/016