Re: 2006/4832

Dear Sir,

Further to your letter dated 26th January 2007 please find attached documents that we have provided and explanation given below:

- Retention of the change of use from a café (classA1) to a restaurant (classA3) is without primary cooking at ground floor level.
- Please see attached plan for more details about tables and chairs.
- We have three staff working in the premises between 7am till 7pm.
- Use of property is mainly for A1 permission. Camden's planning enforcement officer asked us to apply for planning because of sitting facilities we have.
- Tables and chairs outside is within the applicant's ownership of the land.
- We do not have extracting as no cooking carried out in the premises.

Please do not hesitate to contact with me if you require further information.

Kind Regards,

Mr Ali Emin
