Dear Matthew,

Re: 85-91 Abbey Road, London NW8 0AG - Part Condition No.2

Proposal Description:

Submission of details of the entrance to the flats and doctors surgery; and full height staircase glazing pursuant to part of condition 2 of the planning permission dated 29/06/04 (PWX0302319) for demolition of existing buildings and redevelopment by erection of a lower ground plus 5-storey building to provide new doctors surgery on lower ground and ground floors and 14 self-contained residential units on 4 floors above.

Further to your letter of 20 October 2006, please find enclosed 5 copies of the 1:50 elevation DRG No. 85AB/A121 clearly annotated to show materials.

The drawing has now been cross-referenced with the detailed drawings already submitted.

Please note we are not intending to provide any additional samples of materials unless specifically requested.

We have already received approval for the following materials used elsewhere: render, zinc & facing brickwork, see enclosed approval letter of 02 February 2006.

Yours sincerely
