Dear Sirs,

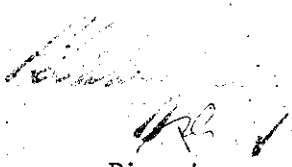

Re: Town and Country Planning Act, 1971
Maples, 141-150 Tottenham Court Road, W.1.

I have to advise you that, pursuant to Condition 9 of the Planning Permission dated 27th July, 1971, Registered No. 11489 (R2), for the erection at 141-150 Tottenham Court Road, Beaumont Place and Grafton Way, W.1., of offices, department store, showrooms, hospital laboratory and residential accommodation, the details of the landscaping shown on the revised drawings nos. 1875.03.030A (amended 10th March, 1975), 1875.SK.17.1.75, 1875.SK.21.1.75, 1875.SK.22.1.75, Registered No. M12/19/A/19995 (R), and indicated in the letter dated 19th February, 1975 are hereby approved, in part compliance therewith.

In order fully to comply with the above-mentioned condition details of the types and species of plants and trees to be used for landscaping should be submitted to your Council for approval.

The Committee has also asked me to enquire what has happened to the original lamp stands that used to be attached to the old building on the site. If these have been retained by Maples Ltd. would it be possible for them to be reinstated within the new development in a position to be agreed with the Council?

Yours faithfully,

Director.
