COMMUNITY LAND ACT
1975 REPEALED

1. An application for planning permission dated 8th October 1976 made by Messrs Trevor-Banchero Associates agents for Clanworthy Holdings Limited was on 18th October 1976, received by the London Borough of Camden. This application was for new development comprising a block of thirteen flats, six town houses together with ancillary car parking and a new means of access to the highway at 525 Finchley Road London NW3 and 1A Parsifal Road London NW6.
2. Under the Community Land Act 1975 it is the duty of all authorities whose areas include the land to which an application for relevant development relates to state whether or not any of them intend to acquire the land or any part of it. The authorities concerned are the London Borough of Camden and the Greater London Council.
3. This Notice is given by the London Borough of Camden who consider the application to be an application for relevant development and if planning permission is granted in accordance with the application DO NOT INTEND TO ACQUIRE any part of the land to which the application relates shown edged red on the plan accompanying this Notice subject to the following condition that the development must be begun not later than two years from the date of this Notice.
