TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT, 1947
Permission for Development.

The Council, in pursuance of its powers under the above-mentioned Act and The Town and Country Planning (General Development) Order, 1948, hereby permits the development referred to in the undermentioned schedule in accordance with the plans attached.

The permission is given subject also to due compliance with any local Acts, Ordinances, building by-laws and general statutory provisions in force in the area. Nothing herein shall be regarded as dispensing with such compliance or be deemed to constitute consent by the Council thereunder.

Your particular attention is drawn to the provisions of the London Building Acts (Amendment) Act, 1930-1939 and the by-laws in force thereunder which must be complied with to the satisfaction of the District Surveyor.

I would also remind you that the Council's permission does not modify or affect any personal or restrictive covenants applying to the land or the rights of any person to the benefits thereof.
