

works materials and manpower as well as residents' use. This would be intolerable for residents;

- 4 The landlord has already shown scant regard for residents' concerns to the extent that the Residents Association is currently involved in a case against the landlord on behalf of the majority of the residents at the Leasehold Valuation Tribunal because of the landlord's neglect and mistreatment of residents. I would expect the landlord to show similar disrespect for residents' concerns and welfare were these plans approved by Camden Council.

Please reject these four planning applications.
