Your comments on the planning application: This is a terrible idea. The Black Cap is an iconic Camden pub, an historic building, and performs vital community functions.

One of the main attractions of Camden to residents and tourists alike is its eclectic nature and the range of different venues. Losing any one of them is a stab at the heart of what makes Camden special.

Your comments on the planning application: It seems unfeasible to have residential properties above a club. The noise would disturb the residential properties.

Residential properties in the center of Camden Town Road would detract from function of the area as a tourist attraction.

The Black Cap itself is a unique aspect of the community and to lose it would be a loss to the Camden area.
