

Dear Mr. Walsh,

2013/7242/P

We would like to object in the strongest possible terms to the notion of a new owner of this historic and attractive building demolishing it and erecting a larger pastiche. You must not let the planning process be perverted in this way. You Planners stipulated that no owner would be allowed to knock Athlone House down, so please ensure you stick to your guns.

