

How can anyone be allowed to buy prime land in central London for only 7 millions and renege on their promise (which was one of the conditions of the sale) ? Surely Camden Council is not as bent as to allow that? Defies belief if they are allowed to demolish.

