Dear Mr Thuairé,

I am totally opposed to the demolition of Athlone House.

I would appreciate a full explanation as to why the clause in the original developer's ensuring renovation of the property has been ignored. Surely this means that any section 106 Agreement can be ignored?

It is vital that Camden Council protect this important property for future generations.

It is a beautiful building that with care and sympathetic restoration can be transformed into a magnificent period property. Why isn't the Council demanding this of the new owners?

You must throw this and all future Applications to demolish the building out. This is not the Bishops Avenue, where 'anything goes'. This building is an integral part of London, the Heath and the Hampstead and Highgate area.

Yours sincerely,
