

---

To Whom It May Concern,

Re: Triyoga

I am fully in support of the movement to keep Triyoga yoga studios in its current location. It's an integral part of the Primrose Hill community and represents a very special place for many locals. It is a haven, almost like a spiritual retreat, and will not be the same if it relocates.

Please take account of the numerous objections and stop this change.

