Your comments on the planning application

The proposed changes are what the owner wants, it is their flat, and they should go ahead and make them. I strongly support their proposal to replace two old windows. It is abhorrent that people are allowed to complain about what others do to their property and that owners must seek others permission to make changes. I wouldn't trespass on anothers property and similarly shouldn't be allowed to stand between them and their new window, blocking the way. It is as gross a violation of peoples liberties as if I could complain, with legal force, about what they wear to Waitrose. Maybe we should all dress in green? - how horribly conformist and pathetic. The sooner the entire apparatus of council planning is scrapped, and the subsequent mediocrity ends, the better. I'm sure the new window will look very nice, I just wonder why the owner didn't have to ask permission for her new earrings? Live and let live I say.
