1. Overdevelopment especially of a single
 2. usage building, with ancillary 2nd usage - i.e. conference centre. This will cause noise and disruption to an essentially residential enclave in a busy central urban environment.
 Student accommodation on this scale is bound to cause noise & disturbance and when they are on vacation the conference & other hireable spaces will spew out crowds and many makers. "Any time in moderation" - Kings Cross is not a campus.
 Unfortunately for the University, it has not got one. But we must all compromise → could

A. V. includes.

- 2) Building must be set back from street. Walkways covered and student units density reduced.
- 3) The scale of Cartwright Gardens should be respected.
- 4) Light pollution must also be considered to adjoining, narrow streets, mostly residential.
