

Akhaja, Jagdish

From: Desmond Kilcoyne [REDACTED]
Sent: 16 May 2013 11:08
To: Planning
Cc: [REDACTED]
Subject: OBJECTION: Planning Application 2013/1598/P
Importance: High
Follow Up Flag: Follow up
Flag Status: Orange
Attachments: [REDACTED]

Dear Sir/Madam,

After speaking this morning to an advisor in your Planning Department, I understand that I can send an objection to a planning application to this e-mail address.

Please find our letter of objection attached (regarding the proposed redevelopment by the University of London of their student halls of residence on Cartwright Gardens).

I would be very grateful if you could briefly confirm receipt.

Many thanks,
Desmond Kilcoyne

Winner of Set of the Year for 'Defamation and Privacy' in the Chambers and Partners Bar Awards 2011 and 2012.

This e-mail is intended for the addressee named above only. As this e-mail may contain confidential or privileged information, if you are not the named addressee, or the person responsible for delivering the message to the named addressee, please notify me immediately. The contents of this e-mail should not be read by anyone other than the named addressee and must not be disclosed to any other person, nor should copies be taken.

Any attachment with this message should be checked for viruses before opening. The sender cannot be held responsible for any failure by the recipient to check an attachment for viruses before opening it.

