

Application No:	Consultees Name:	Consultees Addr:	Received:	Comment:	Response:
2014/4569/L	Jason Ford	9 Leighton Road Kentish Town London	06/08/2014 10:40:31	SUPPRT	Kings Cross station has improved by an order of magnitude in the last few years (well done!) and this statue would make an excellent addition to the overall improvements. It is also a fitting tribute to a man who revolutionised railway travel in Britain.
2014/4569/L	linda clifford	75 gibbon road kingston surrey kt2 6ae	05/08/2014 18:23:16	SUPPRT	It is an excellent idea to erect a statue of Sir Nigel Gresley in an iconic building such as Kings Cross where weary commuters can learn more about the man behind the Mallard and the Flying Scotsman. The design and size (120%) of the statue, with the Mallard, demonstrates the scale of his engineering achievements and is perfect to showcase the UK's engineering heritage, as well as being a work of art by an award-winning sculptor.
2014/4569/L	J Denham	18 Edward Road	04/08/2014 22:14:16	SUPPRT	I would like to offer my full support for this planning application. The proposal celebrates one of the most important, if not the most influential engineer to shape our railways, and particularly on the Great Northern route out of Kings Cross station. I believe that such a statue would complement the recent refurbishment of the station immensely.
2014/4569/L	Alan Aldridge	13 The Waldrons Oxted RH8 9DY	08/08/2014 13:22:09	SUPPRT	It is entirely fitting that Sir Nigel Gresley should be commemorated at King's Cross, and this application by the Gresley Society makes the case for the proposed statue most eloquently. The inclusion of the mallard is inspired, for it will surely arouse the curiosity of youngsters and perhaps provoke or encourage an interest in engineers and engineering.
2014/4569/L	Sema Ziler	56A Hornsey Lane Highgate London N6 5LU	05/08/2014 10:52:08	SUPPRT	I whole heartedly support this bronze sculpture for Kings Cross. Not only is it relevant and brings a focal point of Sir Nigel Gresley installation. It is always good to have relevant art placed in public spaces to be enjoyed by passer by for years to com. With historic reference I think this is a great idea!
2014/4569/L	Richard Hall	Flat 18 39 Craven Hill Gardens London W2 3EA	01/08/2014 11:18:41	SUPPRT	I support this project as it would be a most interesting and worthwhile addition to the wonderful new station hall at Kings Cross. Similar to the John Betjemen statue in St Pancras Station.
2014/4569/L	Sema Ziler	56A Hornsey Lane Highgate London N6 5LU	05/08/2014 10:51:46	SUPPRT	I whole heartedly support this bronze sculpture for Kings Cross. Not only is it relevant and brings a focal point of Sir Nigel Gresley installation. It is always good to have relevant art placed in public spaces to be enjoyed by passer by for years to com. With historic reference I think this is a great idea!
2014/4569/L	Jason Ford	9 Leighton Road Kentish Town London	06/08/2014 10:40:02	SUPPRT	Kings Cross station has improved by an order of magnitude in the last few years (well done!) and this statue would make an excellent addition to the overall improvements. It is also a fitting tribute to a man that revolutionised railway travel in Britain.