

New dry riser positioned in corner of stair & rising to 4th floor. Core drilled holes carefully formed in landings and adjacent concrete and finishes made good to match existing.

Existing canopy

New timber escape door and door head to service stair within original door opening from HW framing and plywood panelling all painted mid grey to match the existing door.

New dry riser inlet in white PPC aluminium set within side panel to door.