2014/4535/P	Gregory Rubinstein	6 Evangelist Road NW5 1UB	29/07/2014 15:55:55	OBJ	It seems that the new bridges will be solid-sided, which will be both ugly from the outside, and claustrophobic from the inside. Also, over the years, my children have really loved going to the bridge to look and see if there are any trains coming, but the new design will deny them this innocent pleasure impossible. Is there really no way to refurbish the bridges without totally enclosing them?
