My enquiry is

Dear Sirs,
I note on the BBC News website

<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-england-london-21980827>

that you are considering an Amy Winehouse statue.

Amy was such a talented young woman, and it was very sad to see her pass due to her battle with the disease.

So I write to urge you to agree to a statue for Amy as a celebrated artist and to remind young people of how dangerous alcohol can be. I spent three years studying art history and for what it is worth I think the proposed design is very elegant.

Yours Faithfully,

Marc Couling-Easton
