Cock Tavern planning application
Ref: 2014/6082/L

We do not oppose the application. However, we are concerned that the pub should remain as an ordinary pub, as at present, for the local working class community, and not become a âgastro pubâ or wine bar.

There are very few social facilities for the local community in this area. The Cock Tavern, in its present format, serves mainly an older clientele, who could become socially isolated if this facility was not available in its current format.

We would therefore oppose any application that included a restaurant, for example. Such a facility is already provided by the Somers Town Coffee House on Chalton Street.
