Your comments on the planning application

I am dismayed to see yet another application for a basement level swimming pool in the area. My concerns are about the effect that these huge basement developments have on the (already problematical) water table and the increased flooding potential. As we are nearby in Lindfield Gardens and built into a hill, and as my property has been flooded in the past, this is a particular concern to me. I also happen to believe that a swimming pool is not aesthetically suitable for the basement of a historic Grade II listed property. If the proposal was for a separate, ground level pool and suitably sympathetically designed pool house, I would not be
