

Application No:	Consultees Name:	Consultees Addr:	Received:	Comment:	Response:
2014/6593/P	Beth	20 Clonbrock Road N16 8SJ	19/11/2014 09:41:40	COMMNT	What a fantastic idea. Hope it happens.
2014/6593/P	Katie Matthews	The Francis Crick Institute Gibbs Building 215 Euston Road London NW1 2BE	19/11/2014 10:47:16	SUPPRT	On behalf of the Francis Crick Institute I am writing to support this application. The project will provide an excellent opportunity for both community and wider engagement, not only with Google but the new King's Cross Central district.
2014/6593/P	Andrew Davies	LUPC Shropshire House 179 Tottenham Court Road London W1T 7NZ	19/11/2014 10:57:29	SUPPRT	I would like to support this application as this type of temporary development supports the cultural regeneration of the area.
2014/6593/P	Charlie Round-Turner	Westminster Kingsway College Kings Cross Centre 211 Grays Inn Road WC1X8RA	19/11/2014 11:24:40	SUPPLETTER	Bringing this award winning piece to Kings Cross is hugely positive. Creating the space to do this will be excellent for the area and really highlight the positive approach to creativity and the willingness to develop and flourish. I fully support this move and look forward to seeing the production and the positive impact it has on our community.
2014/6593/P	Razia Velji	210 Euston Road NW1 2DA	19/11/2014 10:13:01	COMMNT	The Aga Khan University supports this temporary development of a theatre, of which a portion of profits will go to support the local community. It is an excellent use of the site and will attract new audiences to the new King's Cross site.
2014/6593/P	Caro Howell	The Foundling Museum 40 Brunswick Square WC1N 1AZ WC1N 1AZ	19/11/2014 12:01:29	COMMEMAIL	The Foundling Museum supports this application and believes that enabling this much-loved story to be staged in the Kings Cross area would significantly enhance the cultural offer for local families and young people.