This screen works both in summer and winter as it a large tree with many branches. From my flat we look at this tree every day whilst sitting at our dining table. We love to watch squirrels playing in it. We live in a "garden area" and old, large trees are an important feature of this area. Every effort should be made to maintain the trees as part of the garden wild life thees trees support. Although we live next door and the the tree extends over our garden, the tree does not cause problems with shade or effect the grass in our garden. I strongly oppose the felling of this lovely lime tree.
