

OBJECTION TO THE PROPOSED PLANS FOR THE ABOVE:

- 1. Having lived in north Covent Garden since 1971 and latterly in Museum Street I object wholeheartedly to the design and size that is envisaged. The design seems to be nearly as ugly as the present building. What a monstrosity it will be if its height is raised as per the plan! It is completely out of keeping with this historic area.
- 2. The provision of housing is inadequate. Covent Garden and south Bloomsbury are crying out for affordable accommodation. Families are being split up because there is nowhere for the younger generation to live (and in some cases `grandparents' who want to come back to the area). We desperately need more social housing and affordable housing.
- 3. The retail space will bound to be chain shops. We have an abundance of these in Covent Garden and the Brunswick Centre. We need individual service shops: the last one, the electrician's in Drury Lane, had to move out this year after 40 years in the area.
- 4. I gather the neighbouring houses will suffer loss of light
- 5. The provision of open space is inadequate for such a small space.

It is disappointing that after the public meetings little change has been made to the developer's plans.
