To Mr Thuaire,
I am Fr Charles Owen. For twenty years, I was RC chaplain to Athlone House. I have been concerned that such a splendid building should be under threat. I visited every month in the service of the elderly patients and enjoyed the visit, I used to sit and enjoyed the building and the views over the heath. I used to say to myself when there was rumour of closure that I hoped that the building would be preserved for posterity. I gather that when developers took the site over there was a clause in the contract that the building should be fully restored. I cannot understand why this commitment was not fully implemented by developers or those who took over the commitment. Is there not respect for history and our precious heritage.
I hope the appeal will be turned down
yours sincerely
Charles Owen
