

Qualifications:

- Bachelor of Science Degree - London University
- Chartered Engineer
- Member Institution of Structural Engineers
- Member Institution of Civil Engineers
- Member Institution of Highways & Transportation
- Member Institution of Water & Environmental Management

Appointments:

- 1994-99: Member of the Institution of Structural Engineers International Affairs Panel
- 1994-99: Member of the Institution of Structural Engineers Clubs Task Group
- 1996-98: Member of RCC/CONSTRUCT Steering Group for Hybrid Structure Research
- 1996-98: Member of the British Precast Concrete Federation Award Judges Panel
- 2000: Member of ACE London Region Health and Safety Panel
- 2001-02: Consultee for CIRIA Good Practice Guide for the Retention of Masonry Facades

Experience:

- 1986: Senior Engineer responsible for successful completion of a large number of projects which have included precast concrete and hybrid concrete design, advice on structural refurbishment at the Palace of Westminster, hotel refurbishments, extensions and new build for major hotel clients, industrial estates (including on contaminated land), structural refurbishments and surveys for clients including Middlesex University, Polish Ministry for Foreign Affairs, H.M. Foreign & Commonwealth Office, NWB, BT, reports & investigations into feasibility studies, structural failures & sewerage/waste water treatment problems.
- 1989: Appointed Associate Partner.
- 1990: Appointed Managing Director of Taylor Whalley Spyra (Poland) SA. Overall responsibility for development of the office, expanding client base and researching potential market areas for Western construction management expertise.
- 1990-94: Advisor to the Polish Ministry of the Built Environment providing in-house lectures on Western construction, professional indemnity insurance, system housing and infrastructure development.
- 1992: Partner with Taylor, Whalley Spyra (London). Continuing responsibilities in developing foreign and international client base, successfully expanded to include environmental engineering, diplomatic residential and light industrial projects.
- 1996 - Present: Director of Taylor Whalley Spyra Ltd responsible for developing educational establishment, residential/hotel accommodation, planning supervisory services, temporary works experience offered by the company. Provision of expert witness work on precast concrete structures and historic buildings.

Project examples include:

- Fitzroy Place, W1 – mixed use development consisting of circa 71,000m<sup>2</sup> offices, residential units, retail/restaurant, educational and primary care facilities including Grade 2 Listed chapel facade retention and below-ground car parking<sup>1</sup>
- Westminster Park Plaza – 1200 bed hotel with 5 basements<sup>2</sup>
- Abito Apartments, Salford Quays - 280 apartments with office & leisure facilities<sup>3</sup>
- Downham Lifestyles, Lewisham – leisure centre, medical consulting rooms, library<sup>4</sup>
- Whitefriars – facade & water tower retention<sup>5</sup>
- The Brassworks, Frederick Close, Hyde Park – conversion of listed building into luxury flats<sup>6</sup>
- Africa House, WC2 – remodelling of existing office building<sup>7</sup>

AWARDS: Civic Trust Awards 1972 – George Hotel, Edinburgh; Civic Trust Awards 1989 – Richmond House, Whitehall; Structural Steel Design Award 1973 – London Ambulance Services Transmitter Stations and Masts; Structural Steel Design Award 1987 – Volvo House, Marlow; Burnley Borough Council Mayor’s Award of Excellence 1995/96 – Towneley House; London Borough of Camden Building Quality Award 2007 – Ambassadors Hotel London; Civic Trust Awards 2008 – Abito Apartments, Manchester; Civic Trust Awards 2009 – Downham Health & Leisure Centre, Lewisham; RIBA East – Spirit of Ingenuity Education & Healthcare Award 2010 – Kimbolton School; European Hotel Design Awards 2011 – Westminster Park Plaza; Commendation for British Homes Awards 2013 and Winner of the Interior Design of the Year at the 2014 Blue Ribbon Awards – The Brassworks, London; Nominated for BCO Central London Office Award 2014 - Africa House, London.