Your comments on the planning application	The market is an asset to the local community - it is a place to meet neighbours and build a sense of community. It also means that local shops benefit, as people will do additional shopping on their way to or from the market on a Saturday morning. It is also good because it facilitates the buying of local British produce. Lower carbon footprint, and supporting British farmers. The putting up of a sign can only enhance all of this and has no negative impact, in my view.
