Your comments on the planning application

As the co- owner of the freehold of 108 Savernake Rd adjoining I object to this application on the grounds that the proposed works for a new basement would represent a continued overdevelopment of this multi-flated site at 106; will increase the use on the communal drains at 106, drains which have in the past been regularly overloaded; will likely impose excessive noise and disturbance whilst works are ongoing; and will increase the liklihood of further subsidence at the property with a likely knock on affect on 108. Finally the proposed works would affect the visual balance between this pair of semi-detached properties; as well as being more
