NOTES

1. On or after the coming to an end of a fixed term assured shorthold tenancy, a court must make an order for possession if the landlord has given a notice in this form.
2. Where there are joint landlords, at least one of them must give this notice.
3. The length of the notice must be at least two months, and the notice may be given before or on the day on which the fixed term comes to an end.

What to do if this notice is served on you :

- This notice is the first step requiring you to give up possession of your home. You should read it very carefully.
- If you need advice regarding this notice and what you should do about it you should take it to a Citizens Advice Bureau, a Housing Aid centre, a Law Centre or a Solicitor.
