Your comments on the planning application

Sir, Your Notice letter arrived while I am abroad and was forwarded to me today. I will be back in London on April 8th and would ask you to either phone or email me your response if contact is needed before.

My comment on the Planning application: I am the freeholder of the building and the applicant has a lease for its use in its current form. He expressed a wish to alter the facade. Our contract clearly states that I would agree subject to my personal approval of the proposed design being submitted to me prior to a planning application, and
