Your comments on the planning application

I live at 58 Parliament Hill, the corner house at the top of Tanza Road directly opposite and facing the side wall of number 62 Parliament Hill. The proposed side roof terrace will directly overlook my kitchen/living room, my bedroom and most importantly my garden.

This roof terrace will be an unacceptable and unnecessary loss of privacy for me. I am also concerned about the possibility of noise in the summer months as my bedroom will be directly overlooked and within earshot of any noise. I also consider two roof terraces to be excessive, as one large roof terrace on the rear of the building has already been passed by you.

If approved this will set a precedent for future development in this area where no other top floor flats have two terraces. The Hampstead Conservation Committee have been informed of this new application.

Three additional windows on the side of the building directly overlooking my property, have already been granted planning permission by you. I was never informed of these plans and therefore I had no opportunity to object.

I understood it to be your policy that all planning was subject to informing neighbours who would be directly affected, or at least a posting of the application on an adjacent lamp post. I am glad to see that this recent planning application has received the correct treatment.
