Your comments on the planning application

I object to this proposal on the following grounds:

- 1) Fortune Green Road at this point is already very busy with present gym users, a nursery, a childrens learning centre, Tescos and other businesses and flats.
- 2) the road is amain route into London and is already frequently blocked.Congestion results.
- 3) parking is a major issue in this immediate area: the increase in gym facilities would result in more members , more parking at every available roadside. This leads to more pollution and more near accidents.
- 4) the heavy use of the road is causing the road surface to deteriorate more frequently , leading to more need for repairs eat a cost to camden residents.

5) Noise and litter from present gym users is a frequent problem and will get worse with more members. Noise is particular problem a this is already a 24 hour gym. On the above grounds I object to the proposed increase in size and facilities of the gym.
